

The Horsell Village School Anti-bullying Policy

Bullying affects everyone, not just the bullies and the victims. It affects those who watch bullying take place and friends and family of the bullies and the victims. Bullying is not and should never be an inevitable part of school life or a necessary part of growing up.

Our Behaviour Policy is preventative and is based on Rights and Responsibilities.

Every-one in the school has a right

- To be safe
- To respect
- To learn

Every-one in the school has a responsibility to make sure that happens. The policy applies to all people in the school, not just pupils.

Objectives:

- To educate everyone as to what bullying is
- To reduce bullying incidents in our school
- To ensure that incidents are disclosed and dealt with quickly and appropriately by a responsible adult.

Named person:

A member of the Steering will be the designated Anti-Bullying Leader. Currently the named person is Mrs Cooper.

We are proud to be an anti-bullying school. At our school Personal, Social and Health Education is an important aspect of our curriculum and through it we enrich children's knowledge and understanding on how to show respect and kindness.

What is bullying?

The Government defines bullying as: 'Behaviour by an individual or group usually repeatedly over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally'.

In this school, we acknowledge and respond to behaviour, either affirming it or correcting it. There is a 'no blame' culture which means that we do not describe the person, only the behaviour. There are no mean, nasty people in this school, but there may be instances of mean, nasty behaviour.

We teach assertive behaviour: by that we mean the ability to express our rights without infringing the rights of others, in a way which is warm, clear and sincere.

What are the different types of bullying?

Bullying has many characteristics. These include name calling, taunting, mocking, making offensive comments, kicking, hitting, pushing, taking belongings, inappropriate text messaging and emailing, sending offensive or degrading images by phone or via the internet, producing offensive graffiti, gossiping, excluding people from groups and spreading hurtful and untruthful rumours.

All of these types of characteristics can be grouped into the following –

- Bullying related to race, religion or culture,
- Bullying related to special educational needs or disabilities,
- Bullying related to appearance or health conditions,
- Bullying related to sexual orientation,
- Bullying related to home circumstances and
- Sexist or sexual bullying.

The Horsell Village School will accept none of the above behaviours from staff or pupils.

Who is covered by this policy?

- This policy covers all children at The Horsell Village School. It also covers the bullying of School staff whether by students, parents or other members of staff.
- Members of the School workforce suffering from or concerned about bullying can also contact their trade union or professional association for support and advice.

Proactive Strategies:

Bullying is always dealt with as a serious matter. All forms of bullying are recorded and monitored. Pupils understand that this behaviour is not tolerated. To make it simple the children are taught: STOP

Several	Start
Times	Telling
On	Other
Purpose	People

Intervention:

We acknowledge that bullying is often covert. It can happen without adults being aware, and the first inkling is when a child expresses concern, or when a parent does, on behalf of a child.

These concerns will always be taken seriously through a structured approach.

- 1 The facilitator (usually class teacher, sometimes steering group or Headteacher) will sensitively question the victim to establish what is happening, and how the victim is feeling.
- 2 They will explain what is going to happen next and help the victim articulate feelings: 'When X does.....it makes me feel.....'
- 3 They will then (if appropriate) meet with the perpetrator to allow them to articulate what happened and how they are feeling.
- 4 They will invite children, the victim and the perpetrator, to a place which is private and comfortable and where a discussion can take place without interruption.
- 5 The victim is invited to speak directly to the perpetrator using assertive vocabulary....'When you.....I feel...'
- 6 The perpetrator is then asked to describe how the victim is feeling.
- 7 The facilitator then asks both children to suggest how the situation might be resolved.

Advice for Parents of Child Who Is Bullying or exhibiting bullying behaviour:

If your child is bullying, they could be copying the behaviour of other people at home or at school; or perhaps they haven't learned better ways of mixing with their friends. Friends may be encouraging bullying, or your child may be going through a difficult time and acting out aggressive feelings.

To stop your child bullying:

- explain to your child that what they are doing is unacceptable and making other children unhappy
- show your child how they can join in without bullying
- see your child's teacher to talk about how you can work together to stop your child bullying
- check regularly with your child about how things are going at school
- give your child lots of praise when they are co-operative and kind to other people

Sanctions:

- 1st Incident - not severe – Both parties called together, parents informed, mentoring and monitoring of situation.
- 2nd Incident - quite serious – Letter home, missed playtimes for bully, internal exclusion, mentoring and monitoring of situation.
- 3rd Incident - very serious – consider temporary exclusion, (ie lunch time spent at home) involvement of outside agencies, letters home, mentoring and monitoring of the situation.

Review:

Reviews will be held frequently at first and then occasionally, in order to monitor the situation.

Parent involvement:

Parents of both the victim and the perpetrator will be invited to a meeting at which the school's approach to bullying is explained, and how to respond to the child's complaints at home.

It is always beneficial for parents to encourage the child to take responsibility for telling a teacher about the bullying. Often a phone call to the teacher can prepare the ground.

Recording:

- All incidents of bullying should be logged in the "Bullying/Racial Incident Report" kept in the Headteacher's office, this will be acknowledged and actions counter signed by the Headteacher.

Monitoring:

- All incidents will be monitored by the Class Teacher.
- Staff will be made aware of any pupils whose behaviour is being monitored to ensure vigilance at lunchtimes etc.

Evaluating:

- The Class Teacher and/or the Headteacher will evaluate the incident, as soon as possible, but within 1 day of being reported.
